

Mr. Powell- if and when you deregulate and the people in America protests by turning off their tv - what would your corporations do then?